Student Essay Ideas May Help Solve Acute HS Overcrowding

Smith Home Fire Blamed On Wires, Loss To $50,000

Cause of the fire which almost totally destroyed the Charles B. Smith residence on Rte. 173 on Channel Lake last Thursday was thought to be a wiring defect, Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen said early this week.

"From all indications, the fire started from six to eight feet from the furnace and in the ceiling," he said. Loss may run as high as $50,000 and was covered by maximum insurance, Simonsen said.

Earlier reports had the fire caused by the furnace. Simonsen spiked this story saying that "it did not start from the heating plant."

ALL ANTIOCH equipment was called out to the blaze at 10:15 a. m. Jan. 15 and battled smoke and flames until 2 p. m. The Lake Villa fire department also sent equipment to aid in the fight.

The Antioch department was called upon to return to the residence at 4 a. m. Friday when an apparent smoldering spark re-kindled the house. Wooden walls left standing after the first fire call were burned before the fire department could extinguish the flames on the second call. Only a stone base of the walls remain of the ranch type construction which recently was remodeled.

IT WAS UNDERSTOOD that Mr. Smith was not in town when the fire broke out and his wife and five children had moved into the nearby Smith Hotel a few days previous to the fire as repairmen had not yet fixed a furnace which was causing trouble.

The fire laddies were at Channel Lake again Sunday to extinguish a small blaze at Lindy's Soda Bar at 2 a. m. A defective deep fryer caused some smoke damage, Simonsen said.

A call Tuesday took the fire department to the Lewis Portalski residence on Lake Ave. at Channel Lake where a fire was discovered in a partition of the house. Minor damage was reported.

Former Resident Dies

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rider and family left Antioch Tuesday for Osceola, Iowa, where they will attend the funeral of their grandson, Larry, on Thursday, Jan. 22. Larry, an 18 year old who lived in Antioch until seven years ago, has been in the Marines since June.

Illinois Bell To Ask Toll-Free Calls On Antioch - LV Lines

Antioch telephone subscribers will be able to call any of 1,355 additional phones in the Lake Villa exchange toll-free if a petition to be placed before the Illinois Commerce Commission is approved.

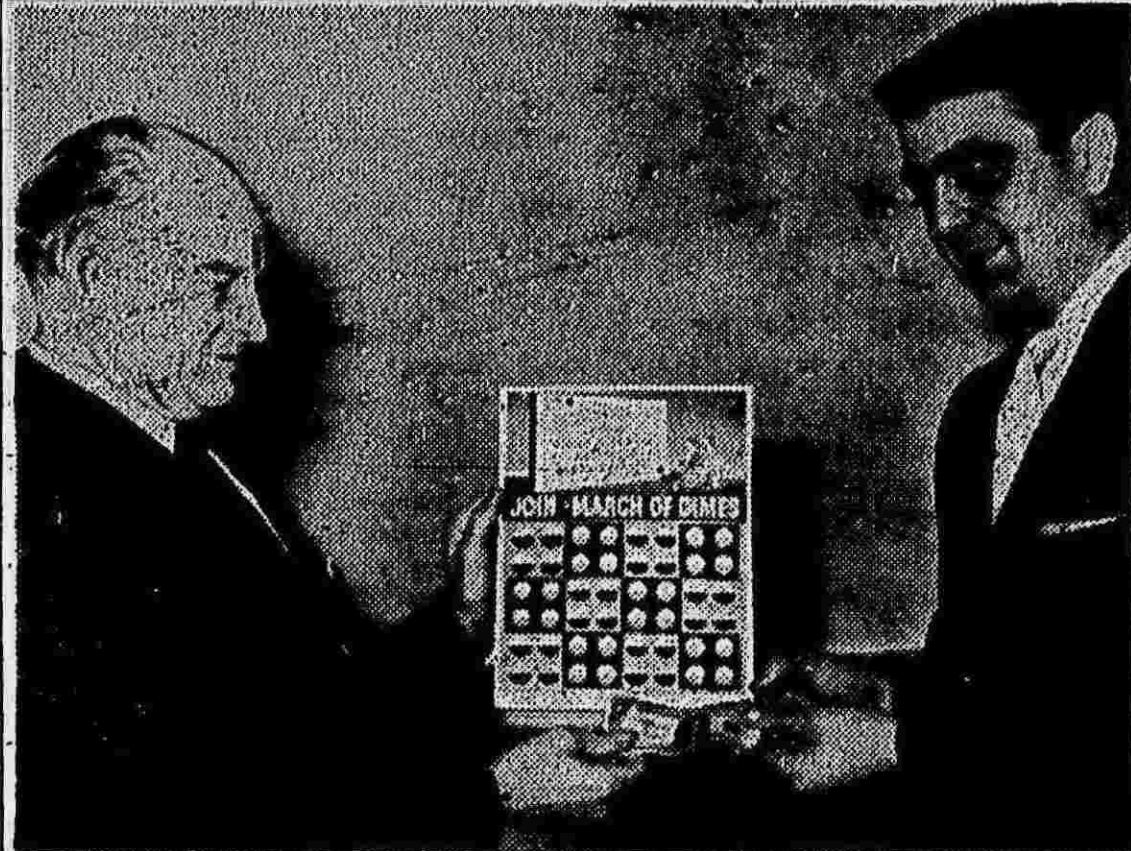

At the same time, the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. will ask that toll-free service be extended from Lake Villa phones to about 30,000 phones in Waukegan and Grayslake besides Antioch.

CALLED "EXTENDED area service" by the company, the proposed plan would widen the local calling area phones here to all ELIOT 6-telephones, says R. N. Hawkinson, manager here.

For Antioch customers, toll charges of 10 cents now apply to station-to-station calls of five minutes or less to Lake Villa phones. These charges would be eliminated under the new plan while monthly bills would be adjusted upwards to take into account the larger calling area.

The adjustment for most Antioch residence customers would range from an increase of 25 to 50 cents a month; for most Antioch business phones it would amount from 50 to 75 cents a month increase.

HAWKINSON SAID that calling between communities normally increases from three to four times when "extended area service" is instituted. To prepare for the heavier calling volume, the company would require some months to install the needed additional equipment after final approval is granted.

ACCEPTING THE FIRST contribution to the March of Dimes in Antioch. The dollar, being given by Mayor Murrill Cunningham, left, to Dr. Richard A. Carlucci, local chairman of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, is made at the same time as Mayor Cunningham was given a coin collector for his own business. The Mayor also has proclaimed this as National Foundation—March of Dimes week in Antioch.

Mayor Proclaims March Of Dimes Week Here, Fund Drive Begins

Crippling diseases in children can be conquered.

With that firm conviction, Dr. Richard A. Carlucci, chairman of this year's March of Dimes moves into a drive to obtain funds for fighting of arthritis, polio, heart disease and birth defects.

He has obtained the sympathy of the Mayor Murrill Cunningham and the Village Board in having the week of Jan. 25-Feb. 1 proclaimed as National Foundation—March of Dimes Week in Antioch.

FEATURE OF THE week will be the always successful Mother's March on Tuesday, Jan. 27. Formerly mothers in communities all over the country went from door-to-door soliciting funds for the fight against polio. But now with polio being effectively combatted, mothers attention is being turned to other diseases which afflict mostly children.

The National Foundation, which Dr. Carlucci represents, has changed its name also to be more appropriate to the job at hand.

PUBLICITY OF this year's campaign is being called "Three Faces of Crippling — and One of Hope," the Antioch dentist said. Three local faces of the three diseases which funds collected here will help fight could not be named as planned because the victims had to return to hospitals for further treatment, he said. Dr. Carlucci had planned to have a local child suffering from each of the diseases to be introduced to the public through publicity.

Although polio has been effectively stopped, it is not conquered, the chairman said. Funds collected in the Mother's March, being headed by Mrs. Viola Chiappetta, and from counter collections in business houses, will go to further research and purchase of Salk Polio Vaccine.

Snow, Blow To Continue To Weekend, Estimate 6 Inches On Ground Now

It began snowing Monday, and it snowed, and snowed, and snowed.

The Chicago weather bureau Wednesday predicted it would keep snowing until the weekend for winter's worst siege of the fluffy white. It piled up on streets and highways but snow plows kept most roads in the Illinois-Wisconsin area clear and police reported not too much discomfort.

BY WEDNESDAY, Roy Kufalk, U. S. cooperative weather observer in Antioch, had measured 6 inches. Only comforting thing about the winter was the lack of cold weather. Temperatures ranged from -1 to 25 above since last Sunday.

Not the amount of snow, but the drifting was causing most of the troubles of rural residents and highway maintenance men. In some areas in southern Kenosha County the drifts measured as high as four feet. Snow plows piled up banks as high as three feet in downtown Antioch by Wednesday morning. Winds accompanying the snow were as high as 25 miles per hour.

Some mail trucks were delayed Wednesday but trucks with chains and snow tires were not having much trouble, Kufalk said. He also is Antioch's postmaster.

Salem HS Board To Look Into 1960 Year Next Tues.

Next year will come under close scrutiny next Tuesday night at Salem Central High School at a special meeting of the board of education.

Several committees of the faculty also will report to discuss salary and salary schedule revisions for the year, says Vernon O. Horne, assistant principal.

AT THE REGULAR meeting of the board last week, it was reported that bus no. 10 which was heavily damaged in an accident last October will be ready for service later this week. Reports on the condition of other busses and on the heating units in the gymnasium also were heard at the meeting.

Plans were made for attendance from Salem High School at the State Convention of School Boards at Milwaukee Jan. 21-23. Nearly all members of the Salem board will attend at least one day of the convention. In addition, faculty members will be granted one day as Visitation Day at which time the teachers can visit other high schools and consult in their teaching fields, Horne said.

Garden Club Members Study Winter Feeding

The Antioch Garden Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at 1 p. m. Monday, Jan. 26, at the home of Mrs. Louis Biel.

The program for the day is entitled, "Birds, and Winter Feeding." All members who have not migrated to southerly, warmer climates are urged to be present.

Winners Named In Contest To Find 'What To Do Until New Building's Up'

Until a new high school for Antioch and Lake Villa can be built on a site the school board already has under an option, problems of serious overcrowding at the present Antioch Township High School building must be solved.

Students, the ones who will live with the crowding, have come up with many solutions in a giant essay contest. Winners were announced Wednesday at an assembly at the high school.

WINNERS ARE: Freshman Class: Don Goodrich, Rt. 4, Box 220, Lake Villa, first; Patty Plautz, Box 866, Rt. 2, Lake Villa, second; H. David Biehl, Rt. 4, Box 199, Lake Villa.

Sophomores: Dan Conrad, Shannon Subdivision, Antioch, first; Loreta D'Abaldo, 156 Oakwood Dr., Antioch, second; Connie Van Noy, Rt. 3, Box 239C, Antioch, third.

Juniors: Sharon Dittman, Rt. 2, Box 383, Antioch, first; Warren Bellar, Rt. 2, Lake Villa, second; Tom Golden, Rt. 1, Box 531, Antioch, third.

Seniors: Linda Hollacker, Rt. 4, Box 311, Lake Villa, first; Jill Gaston, 481 Orchard St., Antioch, second; Barbara Yates, 483 Lake St., Antioch, third.

THE WINNERS, plus five honorable mention entries, came from a total of 397 essays submitted and 146 considered for the final judging. A committee composed of Sven Osterlund and Mrs. Irene Gable, of the Citizens' Advisory Committee; Dr. Richard Carlucci and William Brook of the school board, and Ruth Nickelson and Mrs. Carol Mapletorpe of the high school faculty read every essay and chose the winners.

The Antioch News, beginning next week, will publish the winning essays of each class. First to be printed will be the essay which won $6 for Linda Hollacker, Lake Villa, a senior.

The top essays were chosen on the basis of the original ideas for coping with the problem of overcrowding in the present high school. Rejections were made because the solutions were all the same or not practicable.

"SO MANY GOOD, workable ideas were presented that I'm sure some will be used very soon," Osterlund said. Some of the ideas he listed which show promise included intricate designs for split shifts, using quonset huts now and resell them at a profit when the new building is built, using meeting places in Antioch such as churches, American Legion hall and even automobile showrooms.

Board 'Aglow' Over Offer For HS Site

School officials here are all aglow over the option they have received on 50 1/2 acres of land at Deep Lake Rd. and Loon Lake Rd., in Lake Villa Township for what may develop into an educational center for Antioch-Lake Villa townships.

The E. J. Lehmann estate made an offer of $20,000 for the site, or $400 an acre with the understanding that that price would be only to the school board for a new high school for the area. It was understood that other bidders would pay as much as $1000 an acre for the property.

AN ARCHITECT already has been hired by the school board to survey the land and present plans for a school which could eventually house 1,200 students. The question of buying bonds to finance the school will be put to the voters as soon as possible, either in March or May.

The site proposed opposite the new Oakland Grade School of the Antioch district is felt to be highly advantageous for both townships for present and future needs. The size of the property is large enough to permit almost any expansion—which the present school site does not.

IF VOTERS PASS the bond issue, the present building definitely will be retained and probably converted into a junior high school. An additional junior high school could then be built at Lake Villa as needs dictate.

But even if the bond issue should be passed today, it would take two years to construct the new building, school officials say. At present there are 675 students at the AHS building constructed for 600 and so a problem of serious overcrowding will exist for two years.

That is the reason for the essay contest sponsored by the Citizens' Advisory Committee of the Board of Education, winners of which were announced this week. From those ideas presented by the students, will come many of the solutions to the problems of secondary education here.

3 Weeks Until 1959 Auto License Deadline

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter reminded motorists that they have only three weeks left to submit their mail applications to his office, and urged them to do so immediately and avoid the last minute rush. Mail applications should be in the Secretary of State's office by February 1 for motorists to be assured of having their license plates in time for the February 15 deadline for displaying them on the vehicles.

Here's Some Real News: Men Run PTA Meeting

Men entered into what is usually a woman's world Monday night as they conducted a PTA meeting.

The occasion was the men's night of the Grass Lake PTA which saw the strong sex invade the kitchen to serve refreshments after four of their comrades presided over the business affairs.

TEMPORARY OFFICERS were Les Hribar, president; James Ferrier, vice president; Michael Wojnowiak, secretary and Bob Hart, treasurer.

Serving in the kitchen were Herb Meyer, Earl Beese and Karl Hawkins. The three or four other males attending handled other duties including running the projector for a movie on motor boating.

Regular officers who were disposed for the evening include: Mrs. Wilbert Schaefer, president; Mrs. James Ferrier, vice president; Mrs. Harold Gaston, secretary and Mrs. Walter Johnson, treasurer.

THE BOYS WANT to give away the pie, but Mrs. Clyde Queen wants only coffee at the Grass Lake PTA Men's Night meeting Monday. The kitchen crew for the unique evening was made up of, (from left), Earl Beese, Karl Hawkins and Herb Meyer. About 10 men attended and four took over offices usually held by the women to conduct business of the meeting.

DEAR READER News Editorials

Who Can Solve the Puzzle of People?

The biggest job with the highest pay in the world is waiting for the person who can guarantee to be able to predict people. It doesn't take much imagination to think of the thousands of companies that would bid for the services of such a surely mythical person. And the prices they'd pay for such impossible fetes as telling what people will do is astounding.

One day a man is just one of the crowd—a lamb. In signing a list the first person will write John K. Jones, all others will put first names, initials and last name. If the middle person jots down merely J. G. Smith, two initials and a last name will follow for every other person.

The next day, that same docile lamb will come up with the most fantastic original idea for the rebuilding of utopia. No one could match his ideas.

The driver will grumble and cuss blue streaks when a fellow driver makes a human error. But let that same fellow get into an accident, hurt, even slightly, the cussor will become an angel of mercy helping comfort the afflicted and even donating to the man's relief for months to come.

If men call attention to unpredictability, women emphasize the puzzle of people. How much did your wife spend this week driving from here to there to save a penny on that dress or rib roast? And what woman hasn't assailed you from all sides over the support you give her PTA or woman's group but doesn't know the reason for the county courthouse?

It all boils down to what is important to each person. That which he knows about he'll surprise you, all else he shuns. But to know when he'll do which, that's the thing that makes you want to kiss-em one day, kill them the next.

A Lesson On Finding Out If Anyone Is Out There

No letters have come in on the subject, but a couple of phone calls and some personal contacts last week have asked the Antioch News to lay off any more editorials dealing with the newspaper business itself. And how about laying off such things as reader's obligations, etc., etc.

One man though, asked why we printed such items, so we get our chance to answer.

First because it's all true and they're things we believe you should know; second because people now are beginning to question us on what we print. The questions are pertinent, but we feel like the showman who peers over the footlights, squints his eyes and inquires, "Is anybody out there?"

Guest Editorial

By Doug Sanders — Lindenhurst Men's Club President and Chairman, Lindenhurst Citizen's Party

The Village of Lindenhurst may well be an example to other small communities starting from "scratch", and proof of what can be accomplished in a democratic way of life.

Incorporation of Lindenhurst was inaugurated by a small group of individuals who had the foresight to visualize how fast this village would grow in population and the many problems which would have to be dealt with. In just over four years the population has rapidly grown to about 1,100 residents. Incorporation was important to allow each resident to have an equal voting voice in all major decisions.

Lindenhurst residents are setting an example in combined effort to uphold democratic principles. This was certainly evidenced in protesting the recent Lake Villa Township assessment increase, when approximately 90 percent of all residents signed protest forms. What a vast difference it would make in our country as a whole if 90 percent of our citizens exercised their right to vote.

The Lindenhurst Men's Club is entering its third year. This organization, with about 100 members, sponsors youth activities in the village, and during the coming year, emphasis will be made in raising funds for a new clubhouse which may be used for all village activities.

The women of Lindenhurst are playing an admirable part through their Women's Auxiliary of the Men's Club in assisting to emphasize the great importance of youth activities and to keep these activities in the proper channels.

Sometimes each of us wonders if the number of hours and tremendous effort which is needed to start and keep our individual communities in a strong, healthy condition are appreciated and worthwhile. Public minded individuals in Lindenhurst such as its President and Board of Trustees and Village Clerk spend many hours of their valuable time in shaping events which will in years to come, make Lindenhurst a village of which to be proud.

Ralph Gresens to Lead C of C in Cooperation Year

The coming year will be one of ideas, growth and cooperation, all for the betterment of the community, says Ralph Gresens, newly elected president of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce.

The youthful owner of Thebest Venetian Blind Co. was named to the top post in the businessmen's organization last week. He had served almost two years as executive secretary of the Chamber.

OTHER OFFICERS elected by the outgoing board of directors are: Russell Barnstable, vice president; Jack Fields, treasurer, and Mrs. Thomas Pechousek, executive secretary.

New directors are Robert Calloway, C. R. Keulman and Hilard Tobieski. Holdover director is Dick Erickson. According to the by-laws of the group, four new directors are elected every year to serve for two years. The board elects the officers from its own group.

Outgoing officers are: Bernard Osmond, president; Ray Jensen, vice president; Howard Gaston and Ray Toft, directors.

GRESENS HAS SET a goal of 100 members in the Chamber this year, up from the high of 72 in 1958.

Some of the ideas the new president is considering are ways to make Antioch more inviting to people and a way to bring the customer closer to the merchant.

"All the members of the board of directors are filled with good, sound ideas," he said. "This year's board is probably the best we have ever had."

AS TO COOPERATION, Gresens got an idea of what he will have to overcome Friday night when a non-Chamber merchant came to his store to give best wishes. Gresens said that one of the first projects would be to win him to the Chamber membership. The answer was a flat no, with no reason—except that merchants in this town don't cooperate.

Summer meetings will not be discontinued entirely, Gresens said and the board and committees will meet regularly.

Plans for the annual banquet will be revealed upon return of the new president from Florida where he went this week. The banquet will be in March when the year's coming events will be outlined to the general membership.

Couple Dresses The Part for Roarin' 20s Party

By Mrs. Earl Beese
Grass Lake Correspondent
What to wear to a Roaring 20's party was the problem of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hawkins of Petite Lake last Saturday evening.

With the help of some red dye and a lace table cloth Mrs. Hawkins turned herself out in a real flapper dress complete with bucket hat and long beads. At any rate they had a "roaring" good time at the party and both they and children Anita and Karl spent the night with friends in Park Ridge with whom they shared Sunday breakfast.

Things have been busy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muller of Beachwood subdivision the past two weekends. Frank's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Ryan have visited them along with the elder Mullers.

While doing some ice skating nephew Michael Ryan fell and broke his collar bone. This didn't deter him from wanting to go skating the next week when he came. The Ryans will soon be neighbors, since they have bought a home in Resthaven Subdivision which they will enjoy in the summer and which will be occupied permanently by the elder Mullers, now retired.

Speaking of retiring, Alfred Kobelt, Petite Lake, retired Jan. 1 and is enjoying himself a lot. This is witnessed by the fact that he took his wife and sister-in-law, and a neighbor, Mrs. Breuer of Chicago last Friday to see the television show Queen for a Day with Jack Bailey. Mrs. Kobelt said they enjoyed it very much and that Bailey is a really friendly fellow.

Mary Ann Brausam celebrated her 14th birthday on Jan. 10, by having a big party which was attended by 22 classmates and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Brausam, her parents, report that it was a successful event, and that they survived this teen-age "invasion" and are none the worse for wear.

Mrs. Roy Keifer entertained about a dozen neighbors on a cold night last Thursday by inviting them to

RALPH GRESENS
Chamber of Commerce
President

a kitchen ware demonstration in her home, at which she served some much needed hot coffee along with delicious whipped cream dessert.

The Rudy Brausams are busy people these days. They also gave a surprise birthday party for a neighbor, Tony Fisher, to which they invited twelve couples. Everyone had a grand time.

On Sunday, Jan. 18, Jim Bletsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bletsch of Resthaven, was installed as Scribe of the Millburn Chapter of the Order of De Molay, in an impressive ceremony at the Millburn Masonic Temple. He shared honors with many other boys from the Antioch area, and it is a fine thing to see so many young men participating in such a worthy organization. Delicious refreshments were served to guests after the program.

Our Committeeman Helen Burke can be seen buzzing around again now that she replaced her car which was wrecked recently. Happy buzzing, Helen.

A new bridge club which meets bi-weekly at Indian Point consists of the following women from that area: Mrs. Charlotte Queen, Mrs. Amy Hart, Mrs. Bea Horn, Mrs. Pearl Fowles, Mrs. Esther Jacobson, the instructor, Mrs. Mae Burbrick, Mrs. Shirlee Snyder, and Mrs. Flint. Lots of luck, girls.

Now that we got this column going again after a long holiday absence, let's not let it fall on its face. Just a phone call will let us know what you are doing and don't think people aren't interested, because they are. We heard lots of complaints because the column had disappeared for a few weeks, so now it's up to you to keep it going.

Ferraris Top Sports Car Race Winner

Twenty-five different makes of cars have taken checkered flags for their class in the four years of Road America sports car racing. The internationally-famed name of Ferrari leads them all.

The long-snouted, sleek beauties crafted by Enzo Ferrari in his Italian shops have won 18 class victories (including five of the seven Road America features) since this machine-testing typical American road-racing course was created in 1955.

THOSE FERRARI triumphs moreover, have been achieved in a variety of classes. Not only have the powerful cars of C and D-modified levels won more than their share while battling for over-all supremacy, but lesser-powered E-modified and "passenger-style" coupe models in C-production competition have added further lustre to the Ferrari name.

Next most successful car to run at Road America has been the Porsche. Competing in the popular F class, both modified and production, Porsches have won a total of 12 victories—a sensational performance in just 14 races!

AND DESPITE THEIR comparative lack of powerplant punch, the nimble and durable Porsches have finished as high as third over-all in the long feature races.

While these Italian and German background cars have stood out, others have won a respectable share of class wins as well: Jaguars, Ace-Bristols, Alfa-Romeos, and Corvettes in particular.

The British Jags have won six events in either C-modified or C-production competition, listing two feature victories (in both the D and Lister models) among their triumphs. The Ace-Bristols and Alfas have also managed a half dozen wins each in production classes E and G. Five times a Corvette has nosed home first, either in B or C-production action.

FOUR-TIME WINNERS include Mercedes and Austin-Healey in production classes, while modified Mercedes and Osas have both taken class wins on three occasions.

Double-winners have been Alford, Nash-Healey, Cooper, Lotus, Elva, Fibersport, and TXP all in modified competition.

A handful of "one-shot" victories have been scored by such cars as the Hi-Tork Special, Excalibur, Thunderbird, Aston-Martin, Stanguellini, Mitchell Crosley, Martin T, and MG—all but the latter being modified models.

During the famous Lincoln-Douglas debates, Stephen Douglas called Lincoln a "two faced man." Lincoln replied: "I leave it to the audience. If I had another face, do you think I would wear this one?"

Speaker to Tell Cubs How Bike Riders Make Good Drivers

"Better Bike Riders Make Good Drivers," will be the theme of a lecture delivered to the Grass Lake Cub Scout Pack 80 on Jan. 29, in the Grass Lake School at 8 p.m. by Frank R. Burrows, field service director of the Citizens Traffic Safety Board.

Burrows will use sleight of hand to demonstrate in his talk the dangerous misconceptions of good bicycling and safe driving.

FEATURED WILL be these points:

1. Bicyclists are operating under the same road safety laws as motorists. Bicyclists must ride on the right side of the road, stop at stop signs, yield right of way where the law demands it and observe the many other traffic laws which could apply to bicycle riding.

2. It is just as important for bicyclists to observe the rules of the road courtesy as it is for motorists.

Burrough also will show movies which help make the point that no one is too young to learn about traffic safety.

The speaker was formerly fleet safety engineer in the Traffic and Motor Transportation Department of the National Safety Council. Prior to that, he was assistant safety director at Lordstown Ordnance Depot, Warren, O.

Antioch Second in Business Gains

Antioch has shown one of the best gains in new businesses in Lake County in the past nine years, up 41.2 per cent and second only to Grayslake's 56.6 per cent.

In total number, Antioch rose from fifth to fourth place, replacing North Chicago with 216 listings. North Chicago was the only large town to show a decrease in number and percentage listings.

The figures will be published in the January 1959 Reference Book of Dun and Bradstreet. The county has shown a 20.8 per cent increase in number of businesses.

THE LISTINGS for the largest communities in the county are:

Waukegan	988	869	13.7
Highland Park	293	271	8.1
Libertyville	226	164	37.8

Ted Costoff of Antioch's ACE Hardware Says their Holiday Sales Increased 100%

"We are happy with the results of our holiday business," Costoff says, "because it was the biggest December we have had—an increase of over 100% from December of 1957."

"Our big question is WHY?—why did so many lakes region people shop at our store at the junction of Routes 173 and 59. Certainly there are many answers to that question but one thing we know for certain: Advertising in The "new"

Antioch News helped us a great deal. That newspaper actually outperformed other advertising media on a percentage basis. It was tested with a coupon ad. Probably one of the reasons for the results is that more people are reading The Antioch News. People like it better. And that is good for everyone.

"Yes, The Antioch News helped us at the Ace Hardware to reach the first 25% of all Ace Stores in the nation with respect to volume of business."

Now Can Use Gold To Hold Dental Plates

A new method of weighting lower dental plates so that they stay in place was described by Dr. Alvin Grunewald, chairman, department of prosthetic dentistry, Northwestern University dental school, at a meeting of the Chicago Dental society Tuesday night.

In the talk, fourth in a series of his postgraduate course in prosthodontics, Dr. Grunewald described a technique for using a gold casting in conjunction with the regular construction of a lower denture. This method has been perfected to a considerable extent through clinical use at Northwestern dental school.

USING APPROXIMATELY three-quarters of an ounce of gold as an inner lining of the plate, the added weight aids retention of the denture. Lack of this stability has been the bane of false teeth wearers everywhere.

According to Dr. Grunewald, the use of gold has several advantages: (1) it provides for a better fit of the finished plate because it prevents shrinkage of the acrylic resin (material used to make all dentures) during processing; (2) provides a better adaptation to oral tissues than does acrylic resin alone, and solves the problem for those patients who have previously needed either bone grafting or other implants before dentures could be made, or could not wear dentures at all.

One old chap, disappointed at not having had a chance to shake President Lincoln's hand at a reception, shouted at him: "Mr. President, up in York state we believe God and Abraham Lincoln are going to save this country."

Once, as he passed by, a boy called out, "There goes old Mr. Lincoln." Lincoln remarked to a friend, "They commenced saying that when I was scarcely 30."

Next Sunday at 8 p. m. in the parish hall of St. Ignatius' Church, the Rev. Edmond Hood, rector, will offer the first session of a nine week course of instruction pertaining to the history and theology of the church. The course is intended for adult members of the parish who have been confirmed six years or longer, and these members are urged to attend.

The course will also serve those adults who have become interested in the Church since the last adult confirmation class was offered. Everyone is welcome.

SUBJECTS WHICH WILL be covered during the nine week period are: "Who is this we call Christ?" The authority of the church, an examination of the Old and New Testaments, and our approach to them, the sacraments of the church, and our intelligent use of them as churchmen, a general history of the church from the beginnings to the present day, more detailed history of the Anglican Church, with special emphasis upon the church in America, the discipline of the church, ritual and ceremonial, a group discussion of present day Anglicanism.

"Whether our parish will go ahead in this community and become a living and vital force," said Father Hood, "or whether it will become just another static congregation, will depend to a great extent directly upon the working knowledge each member possesses about his church."

Economy TV Opens Branch Unit, Brings Discount Selling Downtown

For years a leader in retail sales, Antioch is slated to become the discount center of Western Lake County when plans of Economy TV here are completed.

Opening of the first discount store in the downtown area this week is only the beginning of a planned expansion of other branch stores in the lakes area for the firm, says co-owner, Fred Zeien.

ECONOMY TV is just a little more than a year old, having been formed Nov. 1, 1957 at its present main store site on Rt. 173. A partnership of

Donald Masopust

Fred Zeien

Harold Peterson, Don Masopust and Fred Zeien was formed on Nov. 16 last year to take care of increased business. All were working at the firm previously.

The new discount operation in Antioch is in the building formerly housing the Community Service Center at 439 Lake St., opposite Jewel Food Store. It will be the main catalog office and sales showrooms. Representative selections of the merchandise available at the Rte. 173 store will be on display including a color television set.

THE FIRM expanded into mail order discount business on Nov. 1 last year and acceptance by lake region buyers has been "wonderful," Zeien said. Prices are the equal or lower than big Chicago discount houses, he added, and noted that customers have come to Economy TV from Chicago, Kenosha and McHenry.

"People here do like discount buying," Zeien said.

On May 5, 1923 she married Richard Burton and with him established residence in Richmond, Ill., where she lived until 1952. House Speaker Is Virtually 'Dictator' Of Law Body

Special to Antioch News

The turmoil accompanying the selection of Rep. Paul Powell (D-Vienna) for Speaker of the House emphasized the sharp distinction between the House and the Senate of the Illinois General Assembly.

Beginning in the 13th century, the practice developed in England of selecting a "Speaker" to represent and to speak for the members of the House of Commons whenever summoned by the King—or invited to appear in the House of Lords.

THE SPEAKER or presiding officer of the Illinois House does very little actual "speaking" when the House is in session. Instead, he presides upon the rostrum and is forced to "listen" while the other representatives speak upon the various legislative matters.

Still the Speaker of the House is infinitely more powerful than both the President of the Senate (Lt. Gov. John W. Chapman) and the party leader or President pro-tem (Sen. Arthur Bidwell) put together.

This special report to Antioch News readers has been prepared by Sen. Robert McClory to help readers better understand the workings of the legislature.

The Speaker is the virtual dictator of the 177-man House. The Speaker individually names the chairman and entire membership of every committee. The Speaker individually hires every employee of the House including clerks, pages, secretaries, doormen and many others. The Speaker names his own Rules Committee to formulate the rules of procedure according to his liking. The Speaker decides to what committees bills are to be referred for hearing.

AND ALTHOUGH he does little or no speaking himself on any legislative issue, it is the Speaker who decides who may speak, and when (and whether) he may speak, and upon what subject he may speak (if at all). The Speaker alone decides when and whether a bill is to be called for consideration.

In striking contrast to the Speaker of the House who dominates and controls that body, the Lt. Governor or President of the Senate is largely a figurehead.

The chairman and members of the senate committees are selected by a committee on committees. Control of procedure on the Senate floor is vested in the President pro-tem (or majority leader). The Lieutenant Governor respects the President pro-tem's desires as to the order in which bills are called.

A COMMITTEE assigns bills to the various standing committees in the Senate.

The authority and functions of the representatives are very similar to those of the state senators. But the democratic operation of the senate under the president pro-tem is in sharp contrast to the virtual dictatorship which exists in the house under the speaker.

It is not without some justification that Mayor Daley's opponent for the office of Mayor of Chicago (former Cong. Timothy Sheehan) has charged that Mayor Daley would have been the "dictator" of the Illinois General Assembly if his nominee, Rep. Joseph De LaCour had been successful in his campaign for Speaker.

The GOP members by supporting Rep. Paul Powell have shown their preference for a benign—albeit capable—dictator or speaker in the house.

Frequently, when former Speaker of the House, Warren L. Wood (R-Plainfield) introduced Mrs. Wood, he described her as the "speaker" of HIS house.

Earth Population Increases By 47 Million During 1958

The number of people on earth increased in 1958 by 47,000,000, according to the Population Reference Bureau, a growth exceeding the total population of all the New England states, plus those of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Maryland. Furthermore, says the bureau, if the present birth rate persists, by 1980 the world population will be more than four billion, an overwhelming percentage of whom will be living in what are now known in the West as underdeveloped countries.

The nutritional problem in this prospect is obvious. Less apparent, the Health News Institute points out, is the health problem. Millions of people will be huddled together under conditions which will be open invitations to epidemics and medical disaster.

IN LONG RANGE anticipation of this population growth, a score or more of American pharmaceutical houses, have in the past year announced plans to expand their overseas operations on five continents, building plants, hiring native personnel, with only American know-how in local charge.

And perhaps this is the really constructive kind of statesmanship. In the long run, a drug which destroys malaria in India or kills yaws in Africa may prove to be a more decisive weapon in winning the Cold War than any intercontinental ballistic missile.

Student Essay...

said that the strongest and most workable ideas came from the freshmen and sophomores—the ones who will be most inconvenienced in the next two years by the acute overcrowding at the school.

Number of entries were greatest from those classes also. As an example, he said, there were only nine essays from the senior class, more than 60 from the freshman class.

A letter will be sent to every student who entered the giant contest and to his parents thanking them for the interest, Osterlund said.

Money for the prizes was donated by the Citizens' Advisory Council and was added to by an anonymous donation of $10 which was split up among all winners. First place winners got $6 in cash, second place was good for $4 and third place got $2.50.

Snow, Cold Won't Dull Ice Derby Lustre

"SANDY" LOOKS plenty nonchalant in this picture but he is just resting up for the Fifth Annual Ice Fishing Derby and Carnival to be held Sunday at Silver Lake, Wis. The dog's owner, Eddie Novak of Silver Lake, is shown here on the shores of the lake just prior to the derby. This event is open to the public and is sponsored by the Conservation Club of Kenosha County, Inc. Tickets may be purchased at the derby and entitle the holder to a full day's entertainment plus about $10,000 in prizes.

Show To Go On As Planned, Expect 20,000 To Attend

Plans are in readiness for 20,000 people to attend the fifth annual Ice Fishing Derby-Carnival next Sunday on Silver Lake, Wis., no matter what the weather.

Snow or cold will not interfere with the planned entertainment, food and fun at which $10,000 worth of prizes will be awarded to some lucky persons attending. The big show is sponsored by the Conservation Club of Kenosha County, Inc., as a money-raising project to develop and enlarge youth conservation projects in the county.

IN URGING people to come out, Jerry Jolicouer, publicity director, noted that the crowds might not seem as large as the 20,000 announced. "That's because most folks stay only for a short time." But in the course of the day, which begins at 7 a. m., a large number of people will be there, he said. "The show is so much fun, weather doesn't stop them."

Sports both for watching and for participating will be offered for the hardy and less-than-hardy. Jolicouer said. A host of prizes, including a 1959 Rambler, are waiting for winners of contests during the day.

For those who wish to participate, ice fishing of course will be the top attraction. A prize of $100 in cash will go to the angler who nets "Little Fritz," a legal size northern which has been tagged and planted under the big Silver Lake ice. Other game and pan fish caught also will win prizes in open, women's and children's divisions.

THE BIGGEST fishing prize—a Canadian vacation on Nipigon Lake, will be given to the fisherman who pulls in the largest legal-size northern pike of the day.

Kids also will be center of attraction during the day in ice skating races, a hula-hoop contest between youngsters wearing winter clothes, penny scrambles, snow-ball throwing at targets and dog sled races. Appropriate prizes will be given them also, Jolicouer said.

For strictly watchers, several top drawer attractions have been arranged.

FROSTY JOHN, a 300 pound Minnesota ice fisherman will conduct an ice clinic and offer tips to fishermen.

The Human Polar Bear—Emmit Perrin, will cavort for the crowd and sun bathe on ice floes while spectators adjust scarves and earmuffs. Back by demand this year will be the Keno Aqua Club's skindivers with their exhibition of underwater diving.

Another new attraction this year, Jolicouer says, is Sandy—the Living Dog who is becoming a legend around the Silver Lake region with underwater swimming and hunting. The Golden Labrador is as much at home wearing owner Eddie Novak's hat, glasses and smoking his pipe as he is in the water.

For visitors, parking will be provided both on and off the ice. To reach Silver Lake from Antioch, drive north on Highway 83 to Highway 50, west to county trunk B and south one mile to the carnival site.

HUMOR HELPED LINCOLN BEAR CIVIL WAR WOES

Young Abe delivered a sack of grain to a mill owned by the laziest man in the county. As he waited, Abe said, "I'll bet I could eat that grain as fast as you're grinding it." "And just how long do you think you could keep it up?" the miller asked. "Oh," said Lincoln, "until I starved to death, I guess."

Lindenhurst Brownie Troop Formed With Membership Going To 20

By Mrs. Helen Graves
EL 6-5335

The newly formed Brownie Troop No. 60 had their investiture Tuesday, Jan. 13. A get-acquainted game was played by the mothers, introduced by the Brownie leader, Mrs. Lois Flanagan, and co-leader, Mrs. Betty Scharton.

Twenty girls lined up in the form of a horse shoe to give the pledge to the flag and sing the Star Spangled Banner. The girls then sang the Brownie smile song "Make New Friends" and the frog song. The investiture was then held by a candlelight ceremony. "Where're You Make a Promise" was sung.

Membership star-pins were given to Linda Matthies and Barbara Scharton, who have been in Brownies for 1 year. Every girl receives a membership star for each year she has been in Girl Scouting. These two girls had joined other troops and transferred here when this troop was formed.

Membership pins were then presented to the following girls:

Peggy Breseman, Claudine DuMelle, Sandra Golden, Janet Graves, Kathleen Gieski, Kathleen Hartwig, Deborah Hay, Janice Heidner, Bonnie Krakowski, Suzanne LaChance, Jacqueline Lloyd, Linda Lloyd, Deborah Mertes, Kathleen Mertes, Mary Paprzyca, Christine Romani, Deborah Roos, Barbara Scharton, Patricia Willett, Susanne Willett.

Committee pins were then presented to Lou Stanley, Babe Hartwig, Georgia Matthies. These are the ladies who are registered with the girl scout organization and help with program planning and assist the leaders in many ways.

Refreshments were then served to everyone.

HORSEPOWER HORSE SENSE

by DUDLEY WILKENS

"More than 3000 cars involved in fatal accidents last year had mechanical defects."

That sentence jumped at me from one of the pages of a national magazine last night. Month after month you and I chat about the importance of good car care in this column. But after reading that line I hope you felt as I did about good car care—it isn't just a conversation piece like the weather. It's a deadly serious business.

We've always stressed the importance of taking our cars' ills to a specialist in the field—a qualified automobile repairman. Let's say it again. We should never guess whether a change in a car's performance is a symptom of trouble. A 10-minute visit to a mechanic may save a life.

Perhaps you live in a state that requires periodic mechanical inspections. The Carter Consumer Service recently distributed some interesting information on this point, which I'd like to pass on to you.

Carter says that in such states inspectors find one car in three with defective parts! Think what this means!

Even in states where owners are required to keep their cars in good condition, every third car has some defect that might cause an accident.

When you are ill, you don't reach for a bottle of Dr. Quack's Snake Oil. You visit a doctor. Well, just as a person gets a professional check-up when something seems wrong, he should take his car to a good mechanic if there is any evidence of a mechanical defect.

Remember, BOTH the doctor—and the mechanic—can save your life.

During the period of India's First Five Year Economic Development Plan, industrial production rose from an index of 100 in 1951 to 146 at the end of the First Plan in 1956.

Cub Scouts Study Communications, Tour Radio Stations, Antioch News

It's newspaper month for Cub Scouts all over the United States and has been highlighted here by visits of five dens to the Antioch News plant to see a newspaper published.

As in most Cub Scout packs, the young boys study different phases of the newspaper then write stories on their field of the vast newspaper publishing business.

IN DEN 1, Pack 80, headed by Mrs. James Robertson of Lake Villa, the newspaper study and tour of the Antioch News will serve as a basis for publishing a newspaper of the month's activities.

The boys will write a story on what they have done, individually, the stories assembled and set up for a mimeographed paper. A project also will include making of newspaper pressmen's hats as are often found in metropolitan dailies.

A STUDY OF communications from Indian times to the present newspapers will be the subject of Den 4, Pack 92, headed by Mrs. Roger Drije.

The newspaper study will climax the cub activities for Den 3, Pack 92 as members will move into other dens with the disbanding of the den. The tour of the Antioch News was one of the last outside activities of the den. It is headed by Mrs. Arthur Meierdick.

Other packs and dens have made tours of a Waukegan radio station to help them in their studies.

WATCHING THE INTRICATE operation of the linotype in the Antioch News are members of Den 3, Pack 92. The tour was made by four other dens in the area to help them in their studies of communications during the month of January.

Antioch Scouts Prepare For Monday Tilt Here vs Posners

With an eye on first place, the Antioch Scouts of the amateur McHenry County Basketball League head into their most active week with three games in six days.

A game Wednesday night against the Round Lake squad here and a return engagement at Round Lake Sunday afternoon are expected to be warmups against a big home game Monday night against Waukegan, current league leaders and only team the Scouts have yet to beat. The Posners squad soundly trounced Antioch in the third game of the year and have gone on to compile a spotless record.

If Antioch can get by Waukegan on the home court at 8 p.m., they could move into the league's second spot. And if the Scouts can whip Waukegan, it may prove a demoralizing blow to the squad and serve to prep them for further defeats.

The Antioch Scouts have averaged over 80 points per game in 22 games this season.

The high scoring Scouts have averaged 83.4 points per game in the McHenry County Basketball League where they hold down third place. The Scouts have held their opponents to an average of 69.8 points per game in the conference and 71 points per game overall.

IN A CONFERENCE tilt against Alden they amassed 118 points, their high individual game performance for the season. They also reached the 100 mark against Richmond.

Antioch's winningest ball club has a season record of 15 wins against 7 losses and a conference mark of 10-3.

Jack Pregenzer leads the Scouts in all departments of scoring—goals with 187, free throws with 79 out of 118, total points with 413 for an average of 20.6 points per game. In the conference, Jack's average is 25.1 points per game.

Applicants must rank among the top 10 per cent of their class scholastically, show financial need, be willing to reside in a Carroll dormitory, and major in the field of mathematics, chemistry, or physics.

The Carroll college admissions office will accept applications until April 1. The scholarships will be renewed each year if the student maintains a satisfactory grade point average at Carroll.

Salem Out-scrapes Wilmot Tuesday For 60-50 Win

Salem Central out-fought the taller Wilmot cagers and came through with a 60-50 victory over their neighbors on the latter's court Tuesday night.

The Falcon victory was an entire team effort. Len Krawczyk and Dick Neu gathered in rebound after rebound even though Wilmot had a height advantage. Ronnie Yates played a good floor game and drilled 28 points through the hoop, 12 on free throws. Dave Erickson rebounded well. Gene Schulz and Reynold Davis did a lot of scrapping, Davis perhaps a little too much. He fouled out before the end of the third quarter. Art Foulke pushed in two timely buckets.

PARTENHEIMER AND Jeffers accounted for 30 of Wilmot's 50 points; Partenheimer had 20.

Wilmot went into an all court press with 2:40 left of the first quarter. It bothered Central's cagers, particularly in the backcourt, but with 5:56 remaining in the half the score was tied 16-16. Then Wilmot double-teamed the man with the ball but the Falcons moved to a 28-22 halftime margin.

Fouling was frequent in the third quarter. Wilmot hit shots from the field better. Salem was cold from the field but their accuracy from the gift line helped them gain a 37-33 lead with 1:36 left in the third stanza.

The final period was slowed by excessive fouling, too. With a little over five minutes to go the Falcons had a 46-36 advantage. Central maintained its 10 point lead and the game ended 60-50.

NOTES—Central started out with a man-to-man defense but quickly shifted to a zone. . . . Perhaps it was the tight zone Central played that enabled the Falcons to nab their share of rebounds against a taller five. Krawczyk displayed some fine hook shot shooting. . . . Salem's B squad won by 2 points scored by Westman in the final four seconds of play.

The scoring:

Salem:
Davis 1-2(4); Erickson 1-1 (3); Lentz 0-0; Neu 2-1 (5); Foulke 2-0 (4); Straulin 0-0; Krawczyk 3-6 (12); Schulz 0-4 (4); Yates 8-12 (28); Weidner 0-0.

Wilmot:
Partenheimer 7-6 (20); Dicklin 0-0; Harmon 0-1 (1); McKee 1-2 (4); Gaynor 0-0; Roberts 0-0; Bush 2-3 (7); Amborn 2-2 (6); Held 0-0; Rabchek 1-0 (2); Jeffers 5-0 (10).

Johnny King Here for Bowling Shows Feb. 1

One of the world's leading bowlers will be here on Feb. 1 for two big sessions—one to show his skill, another to tell local keg fans how he does it.

He is Johnny King, who was beaten only by Eddie Lubanski in the big Chicago All-Star Bowling Tourney in December.

CO-OWNER JACK Sampayo of the Antioch Bowl expended considerable effort to secure King for his two appearances here. Arranged before the end of the All-Star competition, Sampayo insisted the AMF Pinspotters, Inc., for whom King works, should keep its commitments to Antioch bowling fans.

At 1 p. m., King probably will roll a three-game exhibition with three local top bowlers and at 6 p. m. he will sit down with other keggers to give them advice and explain the fine points of the sport.

KING HAS A long list of bowling achievements to back up his title of "expert" on the subject. He holds the Cleveland and Chicago Match

Game championships and Central State All-Events title in 1949. He was Cleveland Kegler Singles titleholder in 1949-50 and repeated in 1952-53. In 1956, Cleveland fans dubbed him "King of Cleveland Bowlers."

King started rolling at the age of 18 and has been averaging over 200 since 1948. He has rolled 28 perfect games, two sanctioned by the ABC. Ten of his 300 games were in the 1957 season alone.

Ice Boat Races Still Off, May Go To Lk. Geneva

The off-and-on International Ice Boat Races scheduled for Fox Lake are off again.

Originally scheduled for Jan. 9-11, heavy snows forced postponement to this weekend. But snows again Monday piled up making another postponement necessary says George Bell, publicity chairman of the host Fox Lake Ice Yacht Club.

No new date has been selected yet.

Bell said that a possibility exists that the races could be transferred to Lake Geneva — thought to be the only ice boat lake in the country free from snow.

MANY OF THE local boats have moved to Lake Geneva to practice and if conditions persist at Fox Lake, the International Skeeter Assn. may ask the local club to relinquish the host role, Bell said.

However the ruling body can not take the meet away from Fox Lake Club and, like the hosts, would rather "wait it out."

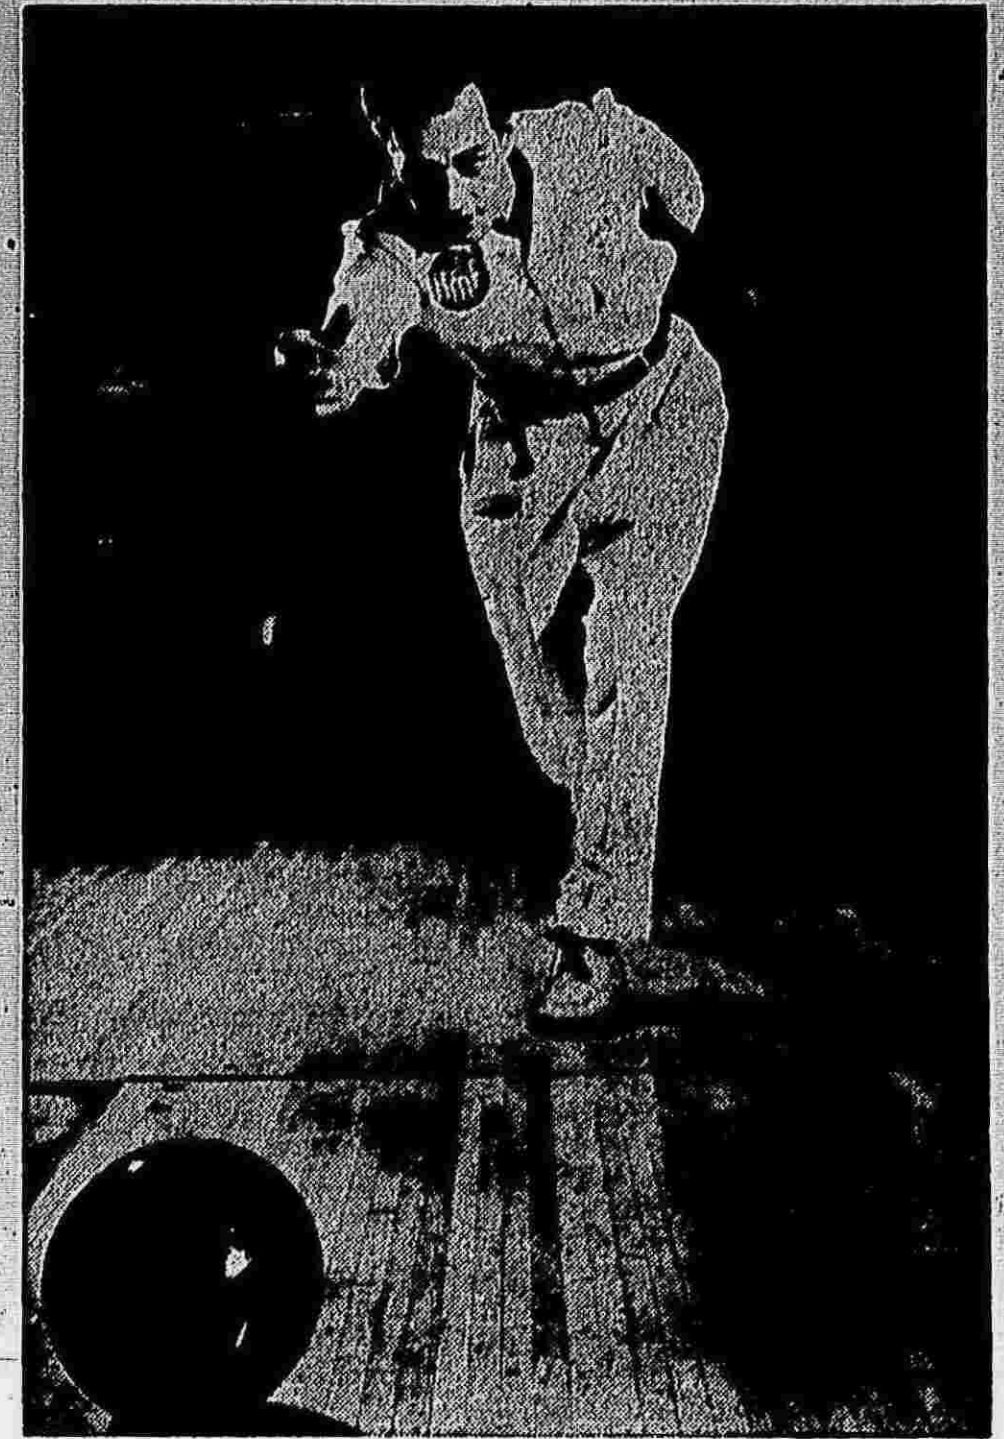

"Ice at Fox Lake is very thick and there is no reason to think it'll break up fast," Bell said.

However there is a crust of snow 4 inches deep on the ice and Monday's new fall added another 4 inches to that. Crust snow can be raced upon but the new snow makes the worst combination Bell added.

THE EARLY JANUARY date first selected has been shown to be historically the best for racing. And all January usually is good but the postponements have been especially exasperating this year to the Fox Lake group.

Last year the same situation existed with the sponsoring Madison, Wis., group with postponements, Bell said.

If the international group stays with the 1959 host club and tries to last out the unusual weather, Bell said that it will have all February to schedule the meet. The ice should remain plenty thick up until the first of March so local winter sports fans still may see the world ice boat show.

BOWLING STAR Johnny King shows perfect form as he approaches the line. He'll show the same style that has made him a top money-winner here Feb. 1 as he gives two bowling shows at the Antioch Bowl.

Local Soph Back to First Place Tie with 37-36 Win

Antioch's 37-36 squeaker over Lake Forest last weekend enabled the sophomore Sequoits to move up into a tie for first place in the Northwest league race.

Wauconda, who defeated the local sophs a week earlier to take sole command of the top spot, suffered its first defeat of the season Friday night to Grant's sophomore squad.

IT TOOK AN overtime effort for the little Sequoits to nip the Scouts for the fifth conference win. The game was as close as the final score indicated throughout except when the Scouts built a nine-point margin in the second quarter.

But Antioch pulled within two at the half, then moved ahead in the third period. Lake Forest tied the scoring with a final minute free throw and neither team could gain beat any other team on a given night, feels that the Sequoits can better their 2-10 record.

The totals:

Antioch: Magiera 3-4 (10); Portalski 2-5 (9); Martin 0-0; Dahlman 8-4 (20); *Gudgeon 2-2 (6); Pyles 3-5 (11); Wolf 2-1 (5).

Lake Forest: Green 4-9 (17); Christie 3-0 (6); Barth 6-6 (18); Eul 7-0 (14); Burns 6-2 (14); Kuhlman 1-1 (3); Kahle 0-2 (2); *Roderwald 0-4 (4); Schmicklath 1-0 (2); Davis 1-0 (2).

Many Players In Action

Although usually only eight or nine players see action for Coach Larry Leon's Sequoits, he still has two squads—a big team and a small team.

The difference though is only one man, junior Bob Martin.

WHEN MARTIN, at 6'4" is in, the team averages almost 6 feet, tall. Without Martin, the average height drops to 5'10".

The lack of height is one of the big problems Leon has faced this year and when he fields his big team, the Antioch average falls below most others in the league. Lake Forest, for example, put a 6'2" average on the floor Friday night with Gene Barth 6'6", the tallest.

an advantage before the end of the regulation time.

IN THE OVERTIME period, Chuck Schuth scored from outside to give Antioch a two point lead and Lake Forest came back with a free throw but it wasn't enough as the Stuart Good coached boys held on for the win.

Herbst and Martin were high for Antioch with 14 points each but it was the rebounding of Martin and Elliott and the clutch free throws of the entire team that gave the locals the victory, Coach Good said.

Salem Holds Third With Palmyra Win

Salem took a solid hold on third place in the Southeastern Conference last weekend with a convincing 54-45 win over Palmyra on the foreign floor.

Leading all the way, the Falcons put together a torrid first half then cooled to a normal pace in the second set to overwhelm the Panthers.

THE TWO-PRONGED scoring of Ron Yates and Ken Krawczyk and the outstanding rebounding of Krawczyk and Dick Neu kept the Palmyra crew under control.

Yates dropped in 17 points while Krawczyk had 15 for the evening. Only Pete Gernundson with 18 points for the losers could keep pace.

The win left Salem firmly entrenched in third place with a 5-3 record. Arrowhead and Union Grove with twin 8-0 scores lead the chase. Salem was in no danger of losing its hold as it played Wilmet in a non-conference tilt Tuesday night on the Panthers' floor.

The scoring:

Salem: Davis 0-3 (3); Erickson 2-0 (4); Lentz 1-1 (3); Neu 1-2 (4); Foulke 0-0; Krawczyk 6-3 (15); Schulz 3-2 (8); Ellis 0-0; Yates 7-3 (17).

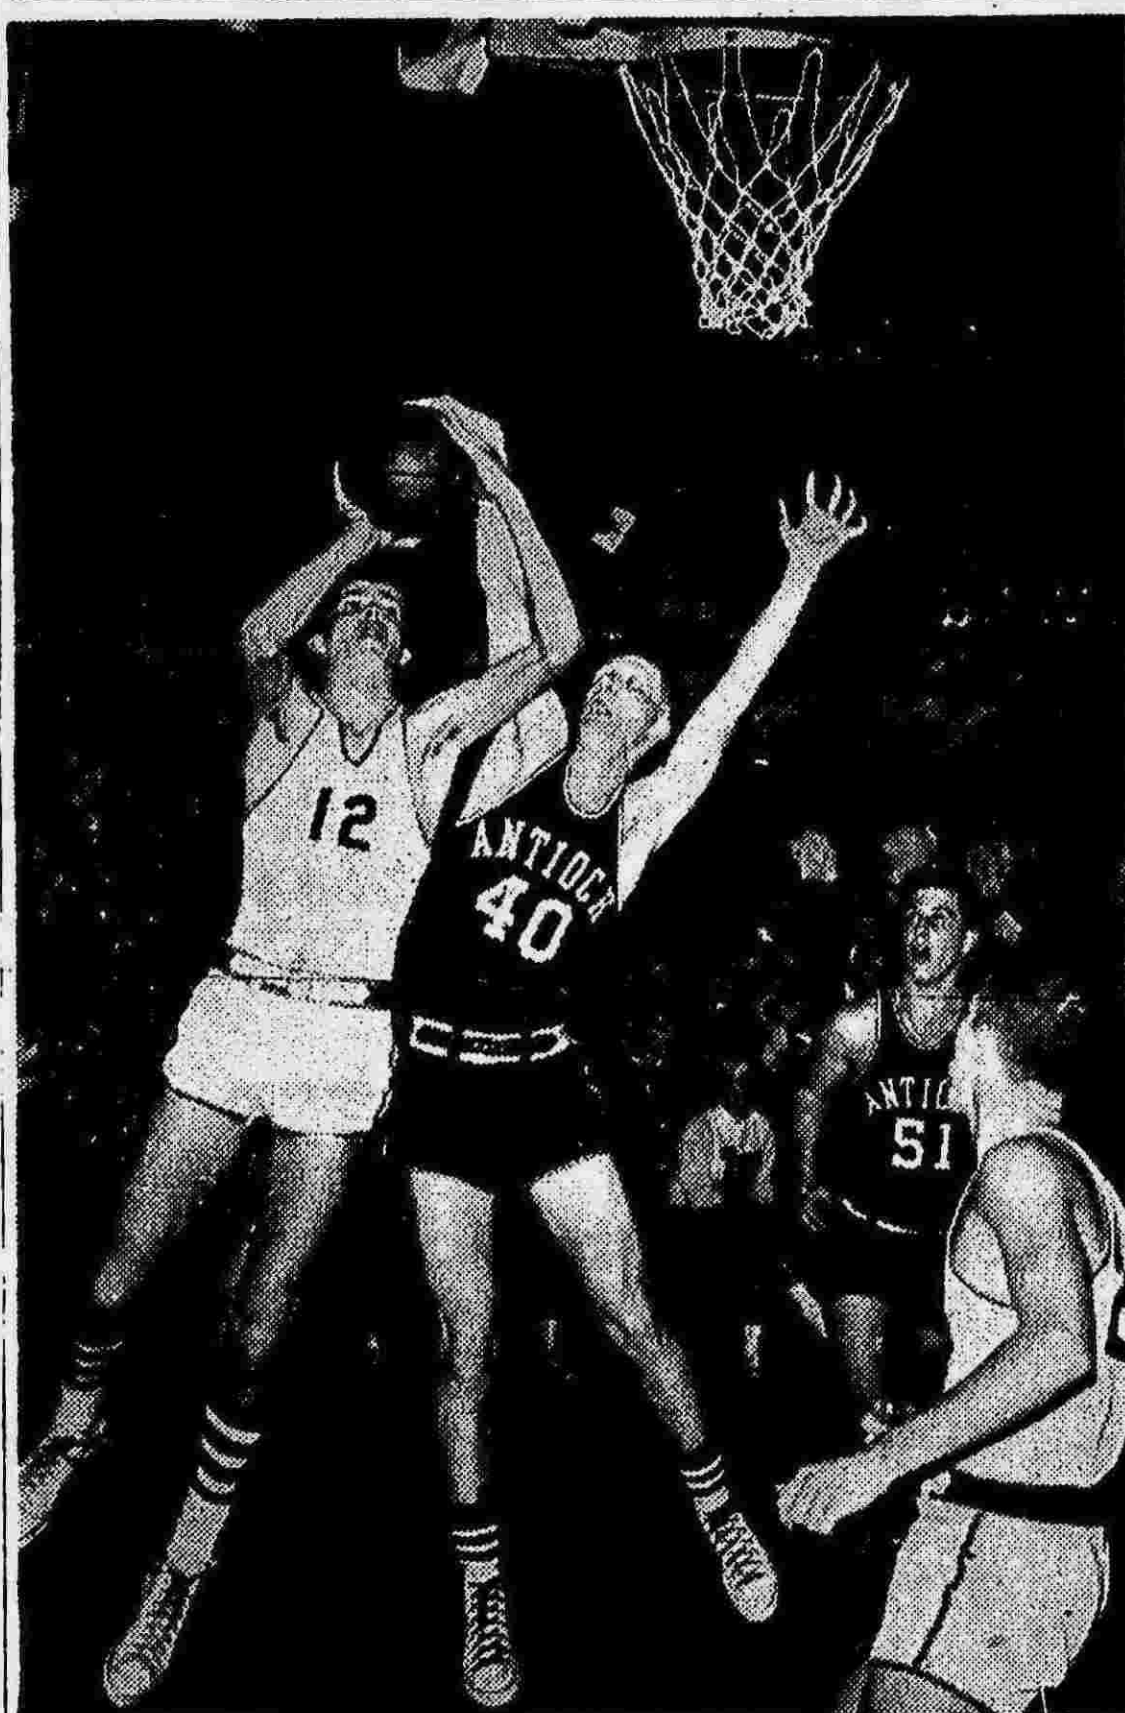

Palmyra: Nelson 1-1 (3); *Adsit 6-1 (13); Marsh 2-0 (4); *Ritterbusch 1-1 (3); Gernundson 5-8 (18); Isaacson 1-0 (2); Willson 1-0 (2).

THERE'S ONE THAT Mr. Barth didn't make. Paul Magiera (40) of Antioch's Sequoits sees to it that Gene Barth of Lake Forest gets only a jump ball out of this free throw try. Ready for a rebound that didn't come Friday night are Antioch's Don Pyles (51) and Jim Kuhlman (25) of Lake Forest. Polley Photo

Pyles Can Expect Tough Time Friday Guarding Warren's Corky White

You'll have a tough time Friday night, Don Pyles. You'll have to guard Corky White, whom your coach tabs "best boy in the conference."

Only 6'1", White is the boy who has given Warren High School league leaders the inspirational leadership any team needs, Coach Larry Leon of Antioch says.

HIS ABILITY on the floor also gives Coach Leon reason to be wary, Mr. Pyles. He is Warren's only returning letterman this year and can jump shoot and rebound with the best in the county.

And you can't expect too much help from the rest of your team for they will be busy guarding Warren's Mordhorst and Johnson who are developing into the top shooters in the loop, and Flood who is the most improved man on the team.

But your coach thinks you can do it, Don Pyles. At an even 6 feet tall, you very nearly match his height, and you have all his jumping agility. And in case your sprained ankle holds you back, Paul Magiera will be ready to spell you. Besides that, Coach Leon has a couple other tricks the fans haven't seen this year which may help you and your team to knock off the league leaders.

Waterways Plan Would Make Our Lakes Accessible to World

Ports of call for boats leaving Antioch's Chain O' Lakes may soon include New Orleans, Miami, New York, Havana, Tampico, and for the more hard craft, the Azores, Lisbon, London.

That possibility hinges on acceptance by the state and completion of the proposed Fox River recreational development program which will see installation of some 35 to 40 locks and dams to create a series of connected "pools" providing almost 200 miles of navigable waterways 100 feet wide with a minimum depth of five feet.

A five-foot depth is enough for almost all boats now on the lakes.

A PETITION IS to be submitted to the state legislature to request members of the Senate and House to vote immediate appropriations for planning and constructing the locks and dams. The area under consideration is from the Wisconsin state line to the Fox River junction with the Illinois River at Ottawa.

The petition calls attention to a need for more recreational facilities for Illinois families and urges the legislature to take "immediate steps to provide for reasonable navigation of the Fox River, to improve its purposes for health, sanitation, water conservation, flood and flow control, the restoration of fish and wildlife, the preservation of its beauties and outdoor recreation."

Cooperating with the sponsoring Commission for Development of the Fox River are boating, sportsmen, business, recreational groups and many individuals.

FOUR OBJECTIVES have been outlined by Clifford D. Carlson, Geneva, who is chairman of the commission. They are:

1. More recreational facilities for Illinois families.

2. Improved flood and flow control.

3. Greater conservation of fish and wildlife.

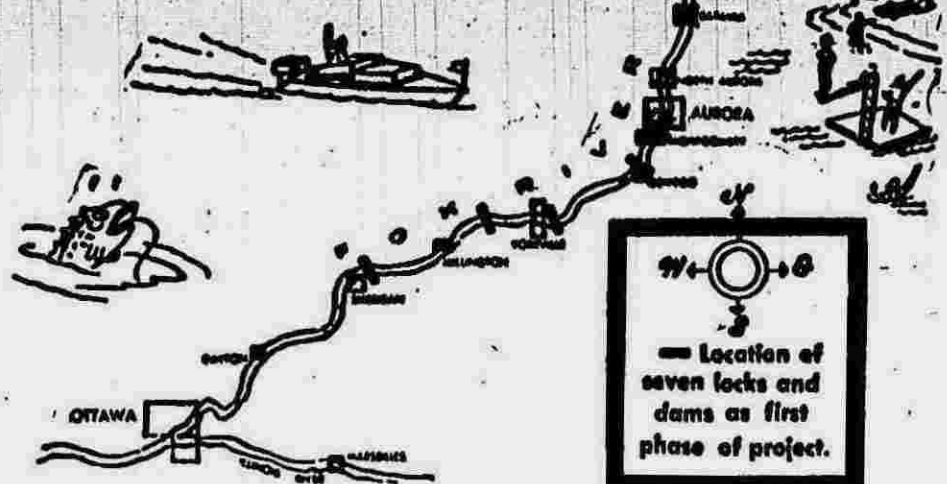

4. Cleaner waterways.

The development is being studied by three state agencies including the Departments of Conservation, Public Health and Public Works and Buildings. The latter agency already is in the process of building a small boat lock around the dam at McHenry which will give access to a 17-mile stretch of river to boats from the Chain O' Lakes to the dam at Algonquin.

Shepard Hits 731 But Chicago Team Trip Antioch Hopes

Marv Shepard of Antioch came up with a 249 average for the Antioch All-Stars Sunday in the Antioch Bowl but his teammates couldn't match it as the Old Fitzgerald team of Chicago swept a three-game set 3274 pins to 2928.

For Shepard, games at 231-233-267 for the 731 series was his highest of the year and eclipsed the 218 average of the five Chicagoans. In December Shepard rolled a 715 series.

A GOOD CROWD of about 350 saw the agile Chicago team put together 1084-1006-1184 games to smother the good 965-935-1028 series by Antioch. High game was rolled by Otto Niehus of Old Fitzgerald with 278 in the first set. He came back with a 205 in the middle and capped the day with a 276 for a 759 series, best of the day. His 253 average was tops also.

One other bowler also cracked the 700 circle. He was Frank Celebre who put together games of 205-245-257 for a 707 series.

The exhibition was the second of the bowling season arranged by owners Mike Schamberger and Jack Sampayo. It serves as a tune-up for the 4,000 Antioch Men's Bowling Tournament which will be held at the Antioch Bowl Feb. 7-8 and 14-15.

We are INTERESTED in "Grass Roots" democracy — are you?

People have talked about the importance of "grass roots" democracy for many years. It is important we believe — the people in a given area should be interested in their community and should take an active part in its affairs. They should be interested in their community 'cause they are living in America.

If you are not already a subscriber to our newspaper — The Antioch News — you ought to subscribe so you can perhaps more actively participate in the affairs of your community whether you live in Lindenhurst, Antioch, Salem, Trevor, Channel Lake, Millburn, or another area we serve.

Scholarship Assistance Booklet Given To ATHS By Legion Auxiliary

"Need a Lift?" a new guide to hundreds of college scholarships available to qualified high school students of this area has been presented to Antioch Township High School by Antioch Unit No. 748 of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The 76-page publication, which has just been revised for use during the 1958-59 school year, has been recognized as one of the major scholarship guides now being issued in the United States.

WHILE IT GIVES special listings of scholarships which have been established for children of veterans, particularly children of deceased veterans, it also lists many other scholarships and educational aids which have been made available to young people generally.

Mrs. Ina Wolfe, Education and Scholarships chairman of the Antioch Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, stated that thousands of young people have failed to take advantage of generous educational aids which have been offered.

TWO FOREMOST reasons why students do not wish to further their education are lack of motivation and economic reasons.

The education and scholarship committee of the American Legion is striving to stimulate this necessary encouragement as well as to make available to all children sources of scholarship information through the media of its publication, "Need a Lift?"

Mrs. Wolfe mentioned in particular the War Orphans Educational Assistance Act of 1956 which provides up to $110 per month in educational help for sons and daughters of veterans who lost their lives in or as a direct result of military service in time of war. A fairly large portion of the young people eligible for this help have failed to apply, Mrs. Wolfe said.

SHE ALSO URGED high school students to start making plans for their higher education by no later than their junior year. The boy or girl who starts checking scholarship sources and making arrangements early is the one with the best chance of continuing his education.

It is important to remember that education at the higher levels is a sound investment. The committee is constantly working to secure more financial aid not only for the gifted student but for all those who need it.

This publication of "Need a Lift?" a project of the American Legion, is now in its eighth edition and is available for the use of the interested students, parents, and school officials. More than a quarter of a million copies have been distributed since it was first issued in 1951.

Get Answers to Tax Questions By Telephone

Taxpayers having trouble with or questions about their 1958 federal income tax forms have been offered a free service again this year by the Internal Revenue Service.

Persons may call the Waukegan office of the service from now until deadline time, April 15, where a staff of experts are assigned to answer almost any tax question relating to the individual return. The number is ONTARIO 2-5355.

A NUMBER of other ways to help taxpayers in filling out their forms correctly also will be offered.

Included will be "Taxpayer Assistance Days," on Monday and Friday of each week beginning Jan. 19. This plan provides for self-help where groups of six or eight meet with an Internal Revenue Service agent to guide them in actual preparation of their returns.

Further assistance will be offered through newspaper articles, regularly scheduled radio and television programs and official U. S. Tax Guides, available at any local Internal Revenue office.

Rents Air Rights

No one can own air, but you can rent it. Builders of the Chicago Merchandise Mart had to rent air space to put up the giant commercial structure, which stands over the right of way of a railway.

Moms To March For Dimes Jan. 27

The Mothers' March, one of the most successful drives to help a charity, will be held this year in Antioch on Tuesday, Jan. 27, announced Dr. Richard A. Carlucci, chairman of the Antioch March of Dimes drive.

In charge of the Mothers' March will be Mrs. Viola Chiappetta, 1096 Main St., Antioch.

THE MARCH OF Dimes drive could be called successful since its institution for the disease it set out to conquer has been brought under control. But funds still are being collected to defeat arthritis, birth defects and disorders of the central nervous system, Dr. Carlucci said.

This year's Mothers' March will be called "The White Glove Appeal of Mercy," and mothers are being sought to help in the drive. Those willing to participate should call 784-M or 1461, Dr. Carlucci said.

In announcing the plans for this year's March of Dimes, the director cited the way polio had been licked with the discovery of the Salk vaccine.

"IT WAS A partnership of the scientist and the layman, of the expert and the 'man on the street,' the housewife, the schoolchild, Americans in every walk of life."

But he called on people to continue giving to the March of Dimes to aid fight against the other diseases which still baffle science.

"There are many diseases that still are uncontrolled," he said. "They cause untold misery and crippling. Many of them seem tangled mysteries that defy solution. But we have only to look at the polio story to realize that stubborn problems can be solved, given financial support and proper leadership and a good deal of brilliant scientific know-how and intuition."

Phone Co. Outlines Plan To Increase Lake Villa Toll-Free Calling Areas

Illinois Bell Telephone Co. wants to increase unlimited, toll-free calling from Lake Villa (Elliot 6) telephones to an additional 30,300 phones in Antioch, Grayslake, and Waukegan, telephone manager R. N. Hawkins has announced.

Called "extended area service" by the company, the proposed plan would widen the local calling area of all Elliot 6 telephones to include those communities. Not only would phone customers be able to call without toll charges to them, but people in those towns could, in turn call Lake Villa telephone customers on a local toll-free basis.

The change in service depends upon approval of a petition which the company intends to file with the Illinois Commerce Commission.

FOR MOST LAKE VILLA customers, toll charges of 10 and 15 cents now apply on station-to-station calls of five minutes or less to the communities which would be included in the proposed local toll-free calling area. These charges would be eliminated under the new plan, while monthly rates would be adjusted to take into account the larger local calling area.

The adjustment for Lake Villa residence telephone customers would range from 50 cents to $1.45 per month; for most Lake Villa business phones it would amount to from 50 cents to $4.50 a month depending upon the class of service involved.

HAWKINSON POINTED out that calling between communities normally increases by three to four times when "extended area service" is introduced, an indication of the added value customers receive from their telephone service with a plan of this kind. He said that to prepare for the higher calling volume, the company would require some months to install the needed additional equipment after final approval is granted. The extended area service should be ready within 18 to 24 months after the plan is approved.

"Local calling areas of even a decade ago are no longer adequate for the growing communities in this area," Hawkins said. "This extended area calling plan, we believe, is in keeping with the needs of modern living."

Hawkinson pointed out that substantial growth in population in exchanges in Lake County and along Lake Michigan as well as the growing number of telephones has been an important factor contributing to the increased calling between communities.

Lake Villa Student At ATHS Gets Bid To Service Academy

Thomas J. Schissler, Lake Villa, has been nominated by U. S. Representative Marguerite Stitt Church (R-13th Dist., Ill.) for possible admission to the 1959 class of the Merchant Marine Academy.

The nomination was one of 10 made to the service school and accompanied a list of 17 to the Navy and Air Force Academies made by Mrs. Church. The nominations were made on the basis of results on a competitive Civil Service examination given in November to all candidates in this district.

Schissler is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Schissler, Rt. 1, Cedar Crest Dr., Lake Villa. He is a senior at Antioch Township High School, and works after school at The Antioch News.

Everything About City Has Grown Since Indians Time

Indians of 100 years ago noted that the present site of Chicago consisted of three major factors—a big smell, a portage point, and a trading post.

Today everything has become bigger and supposedly better. The pungent wild onions of yesteryear are violets compared to the stockyards on a hot breezy day. The canoes which were once carried across the swampy strip have given way to gliding freighters. And the log cabin has been parlayed into the gleaming Merchandise Mart, the world's largest commercial structure.

ACCORDING TO research experts with The World Book Encyclopedia, the huge 28-year-old Mart, affectionately dubbed the "limestone tepee," lays claim to being the greatest single force for merchandising in the world, and has been recognized as the world's biggest buying center.

An estimate of the Mart's commercial importance is found in the fact that the resident and visiting merchants transact enough business there to support comfortably a city the size of Terra Haute, Ind., or Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The building's post office is the tenth largest of Chicago's 68 branch post offices, and its elevators can handle 80,000 persons a day.

THE STRUCTURE has a gross area of 93 acres, which, if spread out over a single flat surface, would cover the entire Chicago Loop. If the sprawling Mart had been built as a skyscraper, it would tower over the 102-story Empire State Building by 67 floors. Ripley states that all the people in Chicago could be placed in the Mart at one time—a statement based on the unbelievable assumption that any city of more than three million people would ever agree to do anything at the same time.

Resourceful scoutmasters, beset with a rainy day, have discovered that a walk from the entrance, through every corridor and back by the same route, is an indoor 15-mile hike.

THE ERECTION OF the building required workmen and materials that would stagger the imagination of the pioneers who built the first trading post of logs and stuffed the cracks with moss and clay. More than 150 million pounds of steel, granite and terra cotta, 12 million feet of pipes and wire, 20 million bricks, 40 thousand light fixtures, 70 thousand sprinkler heads and 5 million feet of lumber were used to complete the structure, which covers two city blocks.

The maintenance cost of the building comes to a figure resembling

November Sales Drop But Town Keeps Lead, Tax Totals Show

Sales totals dropped in Antioch during November but the town still proved to be a good shopping point in west Lake County, beating out all communities of its size and some larger.

Retailer's Occupation Taxes of $3,761 was returned to the village. Fox Lake collected $3,168 and Grayslake took in $2,126. Lake Villa dropped some to $823, and Waukegan had $2,143.

Towns having a larger sum returned were: Zion with $4,433; McHenry, $4,672; Libertyville $6,302. All have larger populations than does Antioch.

Lindenhurst Men's Club Plans Activities for Year

The Men's Club's executive board is to meet jointly with the Ladies' Auxiliary executive board as soon as possible to discuss a mutually satisfactory calendar of events for the year ahead. It is proposed that the two organizations will work closely together in planning events which will make 1959 a banner year.

TV Show to Explain Speech Idiosyncrasies

Do you speak "plain American"? As a resident of Antioch you generally would be understood by Americans in other parts of our country unless the conversation happened to be about trying pans.

In some regions, for example, trying pans are called drip-drops, spiders, or creepers! But all the names mean the same thing, just as some housewives clean house, while others tidy up, straighten up, rid up, or redd up.

THIS PECULIARITY of words and expressions that makes some "plain American talk" sound like a foreign language will be explained in "The Alphabet Conspiracy," newest TV program in the Bell System Science Series.

It will be shown to a nationwide TV audience Monday at 6:30 p. m. In this area, the program will be carried by Channel 5.

After the telecast, films of the program will be made available without charge in 16 mm color prints to schools and other interested organizations through local Illinois Bell Telephone business offices.

Fertile Land Due to Beavers

Beavers may be responsible for the fertility of some of America's best farm land. The beavers, building their dams on the same spot for centuries, left areas where loam is 12 to 15 feet thick.

The Republic of India is the world's second largest producer of manganese ore and the leading supplier of this vital product to the United States.

mileages between planets. As many as 225 tons of coal have been used in a single day. The Mart yearly swallows up 30,000 gallons of oil paint and a carload of water-soluble paint mix. Maintenance and house-keeping keep a small army busy 24 hours a day.

The researchers report that even the Soviet Union has not claimed to have a building as big as Chicago's "limestone tepee." There was much ballyhoo in the Soviet press about the "Palace of the Soviets," which reportedly rises above our Empire State Building. But the Russian journalists prudently avoided any comparisons with the monstrous Mart.

Gives 167-Acre Wilmot Campsite to Boy Scouts

A gift of 167 acres of land near Wilmot to the North Shore Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America has been donated by the Material Service Corp. as a memorial to Sol R. Crown, a founder of the company.

The area, to be called "Camp Crown" in his honor, is one mile east of Wilmot. It is hilly and rugged terrain and is considered ideal for scout camping purposes. Included are five ponds for swimming and can be developed for fishing.

THE NORTH SHORE Area Council will use the area as one of its year-round overnight campsites to provide camping facilities on a year-around basis for the more than 9,000 boys served by the Council. Boy Scout troops and explorer posts will use it for weekend tent camping and during the winter for winter sports. It will also provide facilities to train volunteer leaders in the outdoor skills of scouting.

The land gift was accepted by Milton H. Gray, president of the council, from Robert Crown, a nephew and vice president of the company.

Decanters—Beauty And Grace In Glassware

In ancient Rome, glass was often more precious than gold. Emperor Nero once paid 6000 sesteria—about $200,000—for just two crystal drinking vessels. Though Roman goblets are even more expensive today, many people still collect beautiful glassware.

Among the most popular collector's items are decanters which were first made in the late 17th century. Soon they were part of the hospitality ritual, as hosts elegantly poured clarets and spirits while appreciative guests looked on.

A vast variety of decanters was being made throughout the Colonies at the time of the Revolution. Our nation's newly-gained independence was happily toasted with spirits poured from elegant decanters.

'Speed-Up' Reading Program Helps Salem Students Read, Understand

First groups have finished the speed-up reading program at Salem Central High School and have proven that "Johnny can read."

"The average gain in speed is considerable," says Robert E. Pierick, reading specialist at the school. FOR A PERIOD of 25 school days, students in the freshman class have reported to the reading laboratory and for an hour each day they find out what reading is, how one becomes a deficient reader and how one overcomes it.

The psychological factors and vision problems are not neglected, Pierick says. After the student has completed his self-diagnosis, he begins a 20 period program of controlled reading. The latest scientific devices are used, including several reading paces which force the student to read at an ever increasing rate while helping to keep his comprehension at a high level.

NEED FOR SUCH a speed-up program was noticed by John Daily, guidance director at the school who noticed that Central's students appeared to read well enough but too slowly. A check of students over a two year period verified the observations the program instituted.

While average gain in speed is good, Pierick reports that "there seems to be no drop in their understanding of what they are reading. This instruction will certainly help them in studies, and I hope it will make them want to read more," he adds.

Men With Extra Girth, Desire to Lose It, May Do It in 20 Weeks

Men with extra weight, a desire to lose it and $5 may do it.

Eighteen men falling in that category met last week at the Antioch Township High School and found that it is possible to lose weight and have a little fun doing it.

THE MEETING was first in the series of 20 classes designed for middle aged businessmen with a few extra pounds. The members play volleyball, basketball, calisthenics and tumbling. Men in this same condition are invited to attend. Classes are held every Tuesday at 8:10 p.m. at the high school.

Basketball Coach Larry Leon puts the men through their paces pleasantly, and the fee pays for the lights, shower and towel. Men should bring their own gym shoes.

Long Life for Late Marriage

A teen-age marriage is three and a half times more likely to end in divorce than a marriage between people aged 26 to 30, says Rosalind Russell. "An adorable crew cut grows out, but just plain niceness remains in a man for a lifetime," she argues. Miss Russell was 29 when she married.

Russ Read Dr. Zhivago

Community Methodist Adds Second Church School, Open To All Faiths

A second session of Church School of the Community Methodist Church of Lake Villa started on January 18 from 11 a. m. to noon, the Rev. Gerald B. Robinson, pastor, has announced.

Increased enrollment in the 9:30 a. m. session has made present facilities inadequate. It is hoped that many parents will take their children out of the 9:30 hour and enroll them at the 11 o'clock hour, the pastor said.

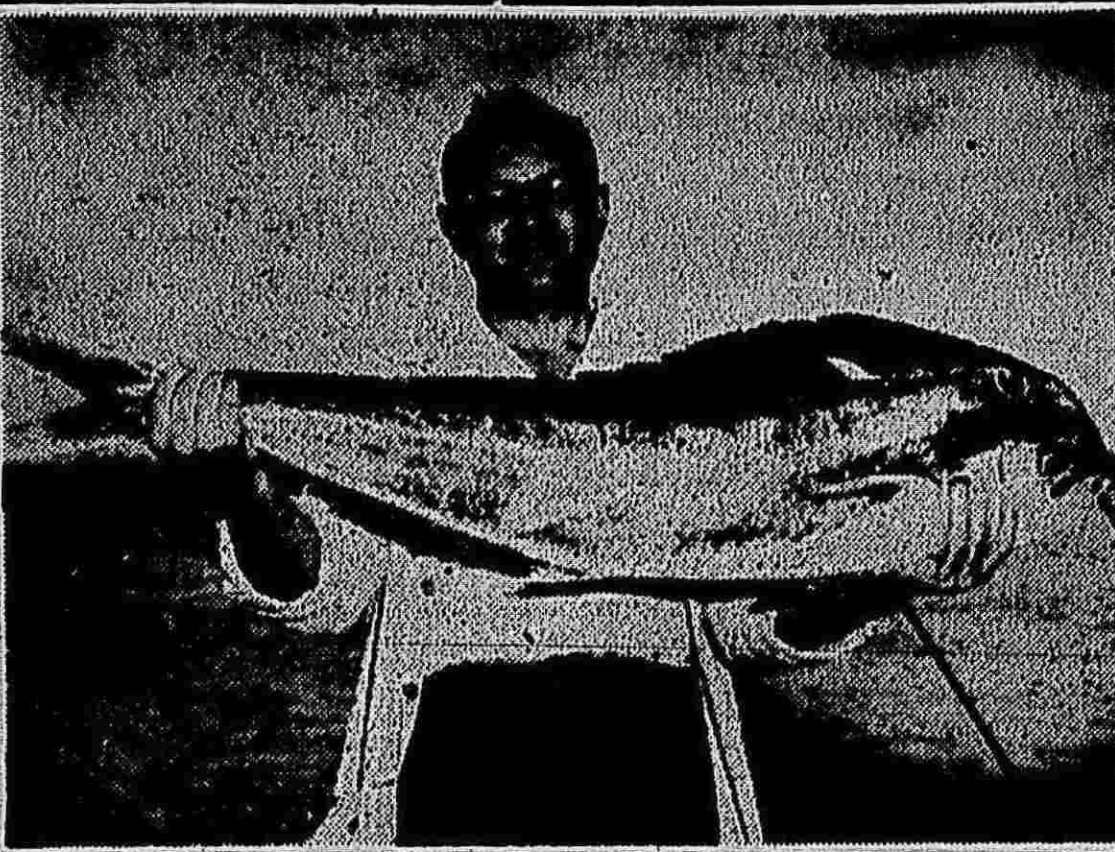

CLASSES HAVE been set up for children up through fifth grade, and if there is a demand, through the sixth grade, with the following staff: Superintendent, Mrs. Ermine Stone; Secretary of Membership Cultivation and Promotion, Mrs. Roland Lyons; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. William Effinger.

Teachers will be: 2 and 3-year-olds, Mrs. Henry Bennecke; Kindergarten, Miss Judith Zellbor; first grade, Miss Irene Perry; second grade, Mrs. John Sjoström; third grade, Mrs. Thomas Hay; fourth grade, Ermine Stane; fifth grade, Donald Wertz.

Parents who can transfer their children from 9:30 to 11 o'clock will greatly alleviate the crowded 9:30 classes.

The Church School should be able to serve over 300 children on any given Sunday by using all the facilities twice, Rev. Robinson said.

He also announced that all children of Protestant families may enroll in the Church School. This invitation is cordially extended to those of other denominations who do not have a church of their own in the immediate area.

County 'Save-Soil' Group to Meet Feb. 7 at Grayslake

First meeting of the Lake County Soil Conservation District will be held Saturday, Feb. 7 at the Farm Bureau Building at Grayslake at noon. A buffet lunch will be served.

Speaker will be C. V. Amenoff, Geneva, labor and public relations expert for the construction industry in Fox River valley. He is a former newspaperman in Kane county.

THE SPEAKER has made more than 500 appearances in the past few years, combining humor and philosophy for his listeners. He is dedicated to good-land use and has been credited with introduction of the phrase: "Land—our privilege to use but not our right to abuse." His subject at the Feb. 7 meeting will be "God's Earth."

The meeting is not restricted to district cooperators or owners and operators of land within the district, officials said. Everyone interested in soil conservation is invited.

Light Baby's Safe Return

A light in a tower of one Roman palace commemorates the safe return of a baby kidnapped by a monkey 300 years ago. The playful monkey picked up the infant and scampered to the inaccessible top of the tower. Horrified, the family vowed to keep a light burning forever in front of an image of the Virgin if the baby was returned safely. He was, and though the palace has changed hands several times, the light—now an electric bulb—has shown ever since.

Producer Price For City-bound Milk at $3.49 cwt.

Boostered by an 11.9 cents negotiated superpool premium, the producer price for 3.5 per cent butterfat test milk delivered to Chicago area milk dealers in December will be $3.49 per cwt. at delivery points within the 55 to 70 mile zone, according to Harry L. Edwards, Director of Sales for Pure Milk Association.

This 11.9 cents per cwt. premium is the result of negotiations between Pure Milk Association and Chicago area milk dealers.

THE BUTTERFAT differential is 7.2 cents per point. This is an increase of 2/10 cents over last month.

Federal Order 41 blend price was reported as $3.38 per cwt. by the Federal Milk Market Administrator. This $3.38 price is down 10 cents from November, 1958. Compared with December, 1957, this price is 16 cents per cwt. lower. The price drop is the result of both a reduction in federal government price supports last April 1 and a continued increase in area milk production.

Total farm production of milk was up 34 million pounds this particular month, Edwards said. This completely overshadowed increased Class I and II sales of some 10 million extra pounds of milk.

So far in January, farm production of milk is following the usual pattern of seasonal increases. Early in the month, extreme cold weather created shortages of milk in some areas and substantial amounts of milk moved into southern and southeastern states, Edwards pointed out.

Life on Other Planets

Little Known Facts From The Reader's Digest

Space explorers are almost certain to find life on other planets, the February Reader's Digest reports. It may not be intelligent; but the discovery of even a few lichens on Mars would prove that life can exist elsewhere and, among the billions upon billions of planets in the universe, there must be more than one on which intelligent beings can live.

All '59 Auto Tags Must Be Displayed By Sunday, Feb. 15

Sunday, Feb. 15, will be the deadline for displaying 1959 motor vehicle license plates on the vehicles, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter has announced.

To meet that deadline, motorists submitting their applications by mail should have them in the Secretary of State's office by February 1, Carpenter said. While only five days are required to process applications at the peak load period, the fact that plates are fourth class mail sometimes slows their delivery, he pointed out. For that reason, two weeks should be allowed to be sure of having the plates in time for the deadline, he said.

REGISTRATIONS processed at the close of business last week totaled about 1,315,000, an increase of 165,000 over the amount received at the same time last year, Secretary Carpenter said. That figure represents only about a third of the expected registration, he added.

Carpenter urged motorists to submit their applications without further delay. The Automobile Division office is staffed to handle a considerably heavier flow of applications than is being received at present, and in addition, persons planning to purchase their plates over the counter at either Springfield or Chicago can do so now with a minimum of waiting in line, Secretary Carpenter said.
